

Justin Zabor

Secretary/Treasurer

The Zabor Funeral Home

Justin Zabor is a third-generation Funeral Director and professional speaker who guides families and corporations to value every moment and maximize time to its fullest potential.

The Zabor Funeral Home in Parma, Ohio has proudly served its community for 100 years, and is now owned and operated by Justin and his brother Kurt.

Justin is a Certified Funeral Service Professional by the Academy of Professional Service Practice. He is also a past president of the National Speakers Association (NSA) Ohio Chapter.

Always willing to poke fun at himself, Justin was “Mr. March” for the first ever “Men of Mortuaries” calendar benefitting Kamm Cares, a non-profit for women enduring breast cancer treatment. The calendar received extensive national media attention.

Justin is also an actor, model, and voice-over artist for film, television, radio, and print media.

